PROLOGUE

September 8, 1964 is a day of great significance to us, the class of 1968. On that day, we were thrust into a new and entirely different way of life. Frightened and unfamilar, we walked through the corridors, bewildered by the strangeness of this school which we have come to know and love.

Now, as we are about to leave C. H. L. S., we compile this yearbook in order that it may always serve as a reminder of four wonderful and beneficial years.

CLASS POEM

A Pearl

A minute particle, unrefined,
   Impregnated by Nature in a Shell,
      A nucleus of magnifying size
Acquires a beauty from majestic swell.

Rough form is polished over endlessly
   With layer upon layer of luminous cloud,
      Each one distinct but helping to create
A lustrous pearl in laminated shroud.

The nacreous strata glow with subtle hues
   To form progressive beauty from within
      Where rest the shaded origin from which
This crescent jewel's shape did first begin.

The human soul, pearl-like in formation,
   Forever grows upon the nascent seed,
      By time is molded to a perfect whole
Enclosing yet reflecting vital bead.

CLASS HISTORY

Freshman Year:

On a foggy day in early September, we frightened neophytes entered the hallowed halls of CHLS, beginning an association which was to last for four years. The prospect of those years seemed an eternity as we stumbled through the maze-like corridors of Cambridge Latin, looking anxiously for room numbers which appeared non-existent, and wondering all the while how anyone could ever get from one class to another in only two minutes.

Time wore on however, and we became accustomed to the daily "rat race"—dashing down the hallways half-undressed from gym or dripping wet from swimming class. Fun, wasn't it? As we became more adjusted, we joined various clubs opened to freshman, and took more of an interest in sports. It was a big disappointment when our football team lost the traditional "Turkey Game" to our arch rivals, Rindge Tech, but we optimistically anticipated a victory for the next year.

History was made this year, as we were all dismissed after the boiler knonked out.

And so the Frosh year passed, spiced with homework, report cards, getting aquainted with our fellow (and female) classmates, our first bout with common errors, our first departmentals, school dances, news of our own Mr. Sheehan's planned retirement, a drama club production of "Camelot", and most of all, an unshakeable inferiority complex given us by the haughty upperclassmen.

Sophomore Year:

Having survived our first year at Latin, we again found ourselves eagerly (?) awaiting the first day of classes in September. We again entered the hallowed halls of "The Bastille," those of us who weren't across the street at the sub-shop, that is, and with a condescending air told the green freshman that Room 212 was—"Right next to room 214, stupid!"

With a trifle more security than in the previous year we managed to struggle through homework, cutting up worms in biology class, report cards, English departmentals, more common errors, and more common errors!

Our secret hopes in the football team paid off as we celebrated the defeat of "the school across the street" at the Thanksgiving Day game, and we were entertained by a school production of "Carnival."

CLASS HISTORY

Mr. Sateriale retired as head of the Math Department and was replaced by Miss Murray, and we were just getting used to our new headmaster, Mr. D'Arcy, when blessed June rolled around and those of us who weren't planning to take college boards in July got set for a summer of sun 'n fun before returning to Latin as juniors in the fall.

Junior Year:

Junior year was the year of prestige. We juniors were now allowed to join many of the clubs and organizations which had been "off-limits" to us as humble freshmen and sophomores. Many boys joined the Key Club, and many girls went "A La Pochahontas" and were initiated into the K.B.

Again, all our prayers were answered with the defeat over Rindge. We were also highly honored by playing hostess to the Repertory of Classical Drama who for six weeks presented three of Shakespeare's finest plays.

Spring rolled in and attendence dropped due to a wide-spread epidemic of "spring fever". On June 5, those of us who survived became the new leaders of CHLS.

Senior Year:

September flew in and for the first time we were looking forward to starting our final year. With the start of class elections, we knew our time of departure was almost here. Our class voted Kevin Carmen as President, Grace Bowen as Vice-President, Kathy Cedrone as Secretary, and Linda Ferullo as Treasurer. Grace Bowen was also chosen as D.A.R. Representative of our school. The "Homemakers of Tomorrow" award was presented to Ellen Dotson. The Dramatics Club produced a most successful "Half a Sixpence" where Steve MacLaughlin played lead.

It was during this year that the Latin basketball team broke its record and with hard work and lots of school spirit supporting them, they made it to the Tech Tourney semi-finals.

Those of us planning to go onto higher education anxiously awaited to hear from the college of our choice, while others frantically searched for the right type of work.

Now we are facing the prospects of our senior prom and finally graduation.

CLASS PROPHECY

It has been eight years now, since we left the halls of C.H.L.S. Linda Ferullo and I have just been glancing through some old school newspapers when we came across an article about the basketball team of 1968, known then as the "Cindarella Kids." Mike Cook one of the star players just happens to be coaching the Boston Celtics with his Assistant Coach Charlie Chochreck. John Cooper, a Harvard professor, had written an editorial of "Life in the 1970's", and this got us wondering what our old classmates were doing these days.

With this in mind we went to one of the Cambridge City Councilors, our old friend Danny Crane. From Danny we learned that out of the class of 1968, only five had entered the political life; they were Joan Ackerman, Jim Vellucci, Mary Mahar, Kippy Murphy and Harry Judd.

From the office of Councilor Crane we went to the Loeb Theater to see the famed actor Steve McLoughlin. He was working on a new show, "Bridge over the River Charles," staring Cathy Carabitses, Jayne Berry and Mike DiBlasi, produced by Dave Hall, and directed by Joe Bourdeau.

It must have been one o'clock when we left the Loeb Theater and we were both starving so we decided to go to Brigham's for a snack, and low and behold if it wasn't Tony Moscatel in the manager's suit. From there we proceeded to Rindge Auditorium where the Jazz Festival was in practice. Among the dancers were Keith Maynard, Chris Kelly, Susan Volpe and Dave Bee, with Pinky Rainho performing as a Go-Go Girl. There we sat and talked with Dave Bee from whom we learned that Debbie Dottin had become a model. We also learned that Mary McColgan, Paula Rodriques, Patty Follette, Vicky Coveillo and JoAnne Amorin all had become secretaries with the Law firm of D'Arcy, Hartford, Stier, and Maguire.

My toe had been killing me from all that walking so I thought we might stop off at the office of Dr. Alice Redmond. Also in the same office building were Dr. McKillop, Dr. Desmarais, Dr. William Hill and Dr. Peter Popovics.

Onward we ventured across town to Central Sq., the home of the Cambridge radio station WCAS, sponsored by Mother Spear's Cookies. There behind the microphone was none other than Richie Hahn, and in the technician's booth stood Ernie DiNatali. We listened to a few songs by Sandy Martin, Lee Kendall, Maureen Cook and Cathy Cedrone, and an instrumental featuring Ferdinand Scorza and Lorraine Toppi.

Our car was giving us a little trouble so we went to the Cambridge Auto Body Shop, owned and operated by Robert Giarratana whose assistants were Buster DiPrimio, Joe Powers and Kevin Connolly. Strangely enough, not one of these expert mechanics could solve our problem and we were forced to go to the shop of Bob Alexanian. As we proceeded up Huron Ave. we saw on the corner of Huron and Gurney, Jimmy Carceo, Tom Martin, Teddy Williams and Joe McCabe.

From Alexanian's Wrecker we continued on to our Alma Mater. It seemed strange to enter those halls once again without seeing a single change. We stopped off at the Main Office to see the Headmaster, Mr. Frank Frisoli, our old Dean. From him we discovered that many of our classmates had entered the teaching profession. Among them were Mr. Jerald Flynn, Miss Donna Hall, Mr. Kevin Carman and Mr. Richard Horn all of which were in the History Department. In the English Department were Miss Danielle Conway, Miss Marie Cignelle, Mr. Bryan Clarke and Mr. Davis Haynes. In the field of Science were Miss Ellen Dotson, Mr. John Riley, Mr. Carl Askins and Miss Shirley Sparks. We left Cambridge High and Latin with our question answered as to whatever happened to the Class of 1968.

FOOTBALL TEAM

Our football team had a disappointing season this year with a record of two wins and seven losses. Key injuries and last minute bad breaks prevented Latin from having a winning season.

Coach Jack Noble, along with the fine coaching of Dick Fusco, molded a comparatively yourn of sophomores and juniors into a tough, aggressive, and spirited ball club.

The players who made up the team and deserve most of the credit are Captain Tom Fratto, Bull Driscoll, Norm Kennedy, Dave Bee, Steve Ritterbush, Tom Eng, Mike Lund, and Brian Hayes.

The Senior Class wishes Coach Noble and Captain-elect Mike Lund the best luck in next year's season.

BASKETBALL TEAM

The 1968 Basketball team earned the title of "The Greatest Team in the History of the School." It compiled an overall record of 19 wins and 4 losses. The team's surburban League record was 16 wins and 2 losses, as Latin shared the League Championship with Waltham. Cambridge competed in the Tech Tourney held at the Boston Garden and advanced all the way to the Semi-Finals. Our team defeated Durfee High and beat Boston Technical High in an over time, while losing by only four points to Boston English, The Tournament Champions.

The boys on this year's team worked hard and showed great desire. Many of Latin's wins were "come-from-behind" victories.

Richie Hahn, Captain of the 1968 squad and also won the Joseph P. Sheehan Foul Shooting Trophy. His partner in the forecourt was Mike Cook, who was voted the team's best defensive player. Our guards were Don Lane, a fine playmaker and shooter and Tom Fratto, a great player both on offense and defense. Cambridge also had great depth with Guard, Ken Marchurs, Forwards: Ron Lee and Charley Chochrek.

The C.H.L.S. baseball team would like to thank retiring coach, Sonny Foley, for 32 years of great leadership.

The Swim Team enjoyed their finest season in History with a record of 13 wins and no defeats. This year's team was lead by tri-captains K. Carman, J. Maguire, and J. Mahon and the finest coach in New England, Mr. T. J. Kenney. The team received the Duel Meet Competition Trophy for their outstanding season.

Among the outstanding members with the team were K. Carman, a four year letterman who supported the team greatly and a fine diver, J. Maguire, a three year letterman who is considered truly a great swimmer, J. McMahon, supported the team with his outstanding swimming ability and K. Doody who pulled the team out of many difficult situations.

This team displayed sportsmanship, determination, and a dedication not found any where else. Certainly the greatest swim team and finest athletic team that C.H.L.S. has ever seen.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Cross-Country team suffered its poorest season in several years because of an acute lack of depth. A pre-season illness hampered Steve D'Arcy's (captain) usually strong form. Paul Collazzo, developing into the team's steadiest runner, and Peter Popovics turned in grade A performance. Jim Colton and Leo Richardson, short-distance men in Track, boosted the team with valuable points.

TRACK TEAM

The Indoor Track team started slowly but finished as one of the strongest teams in the Metropolitan League. Co-Captain John MacKillop and Leo Richardson, the team's highest scorers, alternated as double winners. Senior Dave Stockson ran several remarkable six-hundreds in his first year of track. Peter Popovics, Jim Colton, and Steve Ritterbush were winners in their own events. Other valuable assets to the team were Paul Collazzo, Don Lallos, Tom Edwards, Frank Hallice, Doug Wicks, and Steve D'Arcy.

HOCKEY TEAM

Although the 1968 season has not been too victorious, Coach Fitzgerald proclaimed the year as one of rebuilding. Only five of the twenty-man team have had experienced from last years winning Cantabs.

EPILOGUE

And then the Freshman Year merged into the Sophomore Year, and the Junior Year, and finally, the year we had been waiting for, our Senior and last year. This, the Senior Year will probably be the most memorable year in most of our lives. Now the time has come to say ''Good bye'' and we a little sad, for we are leaving good friends, faithful teachers and fond memories of the Latin School. They will be recalled constantly as we leaf through the pages of this, our Yearbook of 1968.
